Greenville High School will be opening its doors to community members seeking a warm, safe place to walk on winter evenings. The public is invited to walk at the high school from 6 to 8 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays beginning Monday, Nov 5, and continuing through March 28, 2019. There will be no walking during Christmas break. Also, if school is closed during a day or there are parent/teacher conferences, then it will be closed to walking that evening. A complete schedule of available walking dates will be available to walkers at the sign-in desk. Last year, dozens of people enjoyed the program. Greenville City Schools is happy to support this wellness activity to benefit residents of the community. Seven and a half laps around the interior hallway loop is equivalent to one mile. Walkers go in a clockwise direction on Monday and Wednesday and counterclockwise on Tuesday and Thursday. Those interested in walking at the high school are asked to enter by the main entrance by the flagpole, sign in upon arrival and check off their names when leaving. Walkers are asked to walk only on the first floor. No running or jogging is allowed. Also not allowed are wheeled items such as strollers and skateboards. Students under the age of 10 must be accompanied by a parent or adult.

Arcanum-Butler School will be open to the public for adult walking Monday-Thursday evenings from 6-8 p.m. Nov 26 through March 28, 2019. Walking will be restricted to the first floor tiled hallways.
